apetito is the UK's leading food producer for the health and social care sector, providing delicious, nutritious and sustainable meals for people at home or in care. Through our wide range of meals to suit every taste and dietary need, we aim to make a real difference to the lives of elderly and the most vulnerable people. We only use quality sourced ingredients in our meals, which are prepared from scratch by our talented chefs and nutritionists, and then frozen within one hour to lock in nutrition, freshness and flavour.
